

FALL 2008 EVENTS

• HOT DOG DAY & BAKE SALE

Wednesday, October 22nd

Enjoy a hot lunch and Halloween treats! Proceeds will benefit COTS, The Next Key Homeless Shelter and the DrawBridge Art Program for homeless children.

HOT CHOCOLATE, muffins & bagels at break!
BAKE SALE at lunch too!

• GUEST SPEAKERS

Friday, October 24th

Representatives from Homeward Bound (Paul Fordham) and COTS (Debbie Robbins) will visit the religion classrooms to discuss the homelessness problem in our area, what programs they offer to help, and the various volunteer opportunities that are available at both shelters.

• BLANKET DRIVE

November 1-17th

Please donate a new or gently used blanket to COTS & THE NEXT KEY, Homeward Bound's new homeless shelter which is opening 32 new studio apartments for homeless and low-income families on November 8th. TOWELS and sample size SOAP, SHAMPOOS & TOOTHPASTE are also needed at both shelters. Blankets will be collected in bins alongside the Food Drive donations in Mr. Blasser's office and in the Religion classrooms. For each donation, enter your name to win a $25 CASH CARD!

• HOLIDAY COOKIE DECORATING—December. Date TBD

Cookie decorating with children from the DrawBridge Art Program for homeless Children. Decorated cookies to be sold at SV with proceeds benefitting DrawBridge.

To volunteer or for more information, please contact:

Lindsey Wright (415) 883-6556 or email Lindsey@thewrights.ws

Please spread the word about our

NOVEMBER BLANKET DRIVE

to your friends, neighbors and family. It is for a great cause!